

Lexstone Lawyers

A pure law firm

Lexstone.je

LEXSTONE LAWYERS ADVISES IN LOCAL MBO

Jersey independent law firm, Lexstone Lawyers, has advised in connection with the full management buy-out of Brenwal Limited. The Lexstone team led by Howard O'Toole advised on all corporate aspects of the transaction. Howard said, "It was fantastic to work alongside members of the management team at Brenwal for the past few months. Understanding the company's long-term objectives together with detailed preparation and planning were key to a successful completion. It's an exciting time for the new owners and we wish them a very successful and rewarding future".

Brenwal Limited is a leading civil engineering contractor company based in the Channel Islands, serving an established client base within the public and private sectors. It has also secured many contracts further afield, including in the UK and the South Atlantic.

Carey Olsen (Jersey) LLP acted as local counsel for the sellers.

WHY CHOOSE LEXSTONE LAWYERS?

Lexstone Lawyers is a commercially minded and pragmatic pure law firm based in Jersey, specialising in investment funds, capital markets, commercial law, banking, real estate, private wealth, financial services, employment, environment and intellectual property of all levels of complexity. We offer a no-nonsense approach, making us an innovative and dependable law firm you and your clients can trust. We understand the way clients want to do business and your clients are our clients. We are a member of Lawyers Associated Worldwide (LAW) which gives clients access to leading international advice around the globe.

LEXSTONE LAWYERS

Hawk House | 22 Esplanade | St Helier | Jersey JE2 3QA | Channel Islands
D: +44 1534 480 700 | E: enquiries@lexstone.je